- 29.3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Force Majeure Event shall not include:
- 29.3.1.any event or circumstance caused by the negligence, willful misconduct, or breach of this Agreement by Manupatra or its subcontractors;
- 29.3.2.any event or circumstance that could have been prevented or mitigated by Manupatra taking reasonable and customary security measures and implementing industry-standard cyber security practices commensurate with the risks and the nature of the services or goods provided under this Agreement;
- 29.3.3.financial distress, inability to pay, or market fluctuations;
- 29.3.4.changes in general economic conditions;
- 29.3.5.any event affecting Manupatra's subcontractors or suppliers unless such event independently qualifies as a Force Majeure Event under this definition and directly impacts Manupatra's ability to perform.
- 29.4. If a Force Majeure Event occurs and Manupatra is prevented, hindered, or delayed in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement, Manupatra shall be excused from such performance to the extent and for the duration of the Force Majeure Event, provided that Manupatra complies with the conditions set forth in Section 27.5.
- 29.5. Conditions for Invoking Force Majeure: Manupatra shall:
- 29.5.1.give prompt written notice to the other party of the occurrence of a Force Majeure Event, providing details of the event, its likely duration, and the obligations the performance of which is affected. Notice shall be given within 7 days of Manupatra becoming aware of the Force Majeure Event;
- 29.5.2.use all reasonable efforts to mitigate the effects of the Force Majeure Event and to resume performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably practicable, including implementing reasonable incident response and recovery procedures in the case of Cyber Events; and
- 29.5.3.provide the other party with regular updates on the status of the Force Majeure Event and the progress towards resuming performance.
- 29.6. If a Force Majeure Event preventing Manupatra's performance continues for a period exceeding 60 consecutive days, or for aggregate periods exceeding 90 days in any 12-month period, the other party may terminate this Agreement by giving written notice to Manupatra. Such termination shall be effective upon the date specified in the notice. In the event this Agreement is terminated by a party pursuant to this section affecting Manupatra's performance; (i) Manupatra shall not be obligated to issue any refund for any prepaid fees covering periods after the effective date of termination; and (ii) the subscription period shall not be extended beyond its original term in the event service was disrupted by the Force Majeure Event.
- 29.7. Except as expressly provided in this Clause 27.1, each party shall bear its own costs incurred as a result of a Force Majeure Event.

30. Dispute Resolution

- 30.1. Any dispute or difference between Provider and Subscriber arising out of or relating to the existence, validity, interpretation, performance or termination of, or otherwise in connection with this Agreement ("Dispute"), shall at first instance be attempted to be amicably settled between the parties through good faith negotiations. Either party shall be entitled to invoke such negotiations by giving to the other party a notice to that effect ("Dispute Notice"). If a Dispute is not resolved by way of good faith negotiations within a period of Sixty (60) days from the date when the Dispute Notice was received by the receiving party then either party shall be entitled to refer the Dispute to arbitration in the manner described below.
- 30.2. Any Dispute not resolved by way of good faith negotiations within a period of sixty (60) days from the date when the Dispute Notice was received by the receiving party, shall be finally resolved by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this clause 30.
