CIRCULAR

File No. 8/100/2009-IR

Dated: 8th April, 2020

Extension Of Validity of Recurrent Dangerous Goods Regulations Training
Due To The COVID 19 Pandemic

Consequent to the nationwide lock down implemented due to Pandemic COVID 19 and the subsequent restrictions arising thereof, it has been decided to grant extension of eligibility period for recurrent training of all categories of dangerous goods regulations training to meet the requirements of Civil Aviation Requirement, Section 11, Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods, Series "C" Part I, Issue III, dated 8th January 2010, Revision 1 dated 6th September 2019.

Accordingly, the competent authority has decided to extend the validity of certifications of all categories of dangerous goods regulations training expiring on or after 20th March 2020 upto 30th June 2020 or until the revocation of this circular whichever is earlier.

All operators and others entities shall:

- I. Note that this extension of the validity of the certificates by this circular is temporary and not to be considered as an alternate to formal class room recurrent training;
- II. Provide updated information on carriage of dangerous goods to each of those personnel whose certificates are being extended by this circular;

- III. Maintain separate training records of such extended certificates for any verification / audit purposes till end of December 2020;
- IV. Schedule and organise class room recurrent training and conduct examination to meet the requirements of the CAR prior to the expiry of the extended validity period. However, this class room recurrent training shall be carried out only after the lockdown restrictions are revoked by the Central Government / State Government; and
- V. Any current certificate that is valid after 1st July 2020 shall be renewed prior to the expiry of such certificates in accordance with the CAR.

This issues with the approval of the Director General.
